

NEW YORK STATE EDUCATION DEPARTMENT
MIDDLE LEVEL C

MODULE DESCRIPTION

This module introduces students to the ways in which climate, geography, and culture influence the availability, sustainability, and quality of food. Students will examine the challenges, conditions, and technological advances which affect the food supply from production through consumption. They will identify and prepare foods to learn about cuisines, ingredients used, and industry standards. Students will have the opportunity to explore the wide variety of career options related to food systems and production and to identify the knowledge, skills, education, and training necessary for success within these fields.

GUIDING QUESTION

UNITED NATIONS WORLD FOOD PROGRAMME (WFP)

<http://www.wfp.org/>

In emergencies, WFP gets food where it is needed, saving the lives of victims of war, civil conflict, and natural disasters. After the cause of an emergency has passed, WFP uses food to help communities rebuild their shattered lives. WFP is part of the United Nations system and is voluntarily funded.
